

The Evening World

Published by the Free Publishing Company.

TUESDAY EVENING, AUGUST 5.

SUBSCRIPTIONS TO THE EVENING WORLD

(Including Postage):
 PER MONTH.....30c.
 PER YEAR.....$3.10

VOL. 31.....NO. 10,577

Entered at the Post-Office at New York as second class matter.

BRANCH OFFICES:
 NEW YORK OFFICE—1207 BROADWAY,
 between 51st and 52d sts., New York.
 BROOKLYN—359 FULTON ST. HARLEM—
 News Department at 100 EAST 125TH ST.
 PHILADELPHIA, PA.—LORDS BUILDING,
 115 SOUTH 6TH ST. WASHINGTON—610
 10TH ST.
 LONDON OFFICE—32 COCKSPUR ST., TRAFALGAR SQUARE.

A FLAGRANT NUISANCE.

The New York Steam Heating Company is a pregnant source of annoyance to the town. Its little explosive ways have been demonstrated to a charm, and although they imperil the life of every business man in the lower part of the town, at least, we have become used to them and go bravely on, feeling like Russia's Czar.

But now the playful steam which the Company injects into our streets has indulged in the sever main, and the sewage gas painfully diffusive under such warm treatment.

Commissioner Gilroy came in for a large dose of this aromatic distillation and fairly stamped on the floor with indignation over this gross affront to his olfactory nerves. He sent Engineer Nicholas M. O'Connor out on the war-path with sealed orders to tomahawk liberally.

It is tiresome to be blown up and asphyxiated with bad smells for the sake of one monopoly. Of course, this sort of thing is a wearisome antique, but the hope will spring up forever in the New York breast that it may be abated.

THE BAR ASSOCIATION.

The National Bar Association is to convene to-morrow in Indianapolis for its third annual meeting. There is an abundance of things in the way of reform which the Association would do well to consider. Long, interminable legal contents might be subject to certain curtailments. It is not fair to let things be spun out and deliberately prolonged to everybody's impatience and somebody's largely increased expense.

Divorce proceedings may well receive some consideration also. In certain places there is a deplorable laxity in the granting of divorce. The Bar Association should try to remedy things of this kind.

HER ROYAL KISS.

When Kaiser WILHELM, bravely togged out as a British Joseph Porter, met his Royal Grandmother at Osborne the dear old lady took his hand in her hands and imprinted a kiss on each of her Imperial grandson's cheeks.

WILLIAM may have reasonably congratulated himself on having only two, and he took his medicine with Teutonic plegm. But perhaps he did wish that she had deputed the function to the gracious Princess of Wales.

This isn't as bad as being hugger-mugger by the Czar, but it is a tax on being an Emperor to have to endure such things.

HOT.

New York has had a demoralizing spell of heat. It is perfectly useless to protest. It never lowers the temperature, but a lusty howl is relieving. The thermometer of this town does feats of climbing which puts Chicago, St. Louis and New Orleans to the blush. It is about time that it should reserve acrobatic tricks of this kind for noon or after-noon performances. When it crawls up in the neighborhood of the 80 notch in the early main hours it is time to moan. Don't trifle with the cool and dewy morn, even here in this blessed town.

Jersey City's temperance people must be taught to know that the city has been regaling itself on a brew made up of sewage, coal oil, tar and Passaic River water. It doesn't sound enticing, and if any Jersey City man, or woman as for that, takes to strong drink he, or she, has got a big extenuating circumstance. No wonder Inspector LEAKE shrunk from making a report on the water.

Five thousand doctors. Berlin! It is to be hoped that nobody feels ill during this session of the profession. What hope could he have among five thousand?

The probability is that JAMES GILBERT BLAINE will not resign. No, not resign.

SPOTLETS.

A man drove four bulls into his skull. This is better than the old and head with a vengeance.

Extremes meet naturally in a butcher.

This weather is an excuse for fiscal endeavor.

A man cannot have an interest in things when he is dead because the principal is gone.

The American maid is more convinced than any politician that it is not easy to get a fair count.

You may be great, you may be good, you may be noble more or less. But that will not help you unless you will be your tongue's acre.

"They are going to double our salary," said a bank director. "Good. What are you getting?" "Nothing."

Somebody says the Vanderbilt couldn't buy two tons of gold with all their money. Why need to show a gleam over the family in this way?

The new electric operation now seems on its knees, and is for the time being a failure.

A man who was called the poor insect-cruel called a self-caller.

"I am up the beam," said the moon. "Can you see my new and go on better?" retorted the sun.

The new electric operation now seems on its knees, and is for the time being a failure.

A man who was called the poor insect-cruel called a self-caller.

"I am up the beam," said the moon. "Can you see my new and go on better?" retorted the sun.

The new electric operation now seems on its knees, and is for the time being a failure.

A man who was called the poor insect-cruel called a self-caller.

"I am up the beam," said the moon. "Can you see my new and go on better?" retorted the sun.

The new electric operation now seems on its knees, and is for the time being a failure.

A man who was called the poor insect-cruel called a self-caller.

"I am up the beam," said the moon. "Can you see my new and go on better?" retorted the sun.

THE WAYS OF WOMAN FAIR.

Pure linen hemstitched pillow shams are selling at $1.50 a pair. With the adjustable sham a pair will keep clean a month and endure in beauty five years.

White canvas low shoes, with patent leather tips and trimmings, are novel and stylish, but not popular. The feet must not exceed size 5 or width C to wear them for the manufacturing purposes of white is said to be one-fourth the original in loose effects, as dresses, and one-fourth in leather for feet and hand wear.

Bilowy sleeves, of silk embroidery, gauze and flowered net are being used in fine muslin dresses. The effect is very French.

Mrs. Gladstone always attends meetings of Parliament when either her husband or her son Herbert is to speak.

In outing and ruyching cloths the new cotton goods can scarcely be told from flannel. It certainly requires a close examination to detect the difference. There are more than a hundred styles. They are plain, mixed, graduated and cluster stripes.

Quite an ornament to the smoking table is an ash-tray formed of the upturned palm of a human hand in bright silver.

Skirts of Summer toilets are shaped with great simplicity; many of them are elaborately trimmed, but a great portion for general wear are garnished with ribbons. A pretty airy mohair figured with minute silver dots was recently finished which showed seven rows of black velvet ribbon on the skirt, graduated widths being used. The corsage was correspondingly trimmed.

"In this you will find a match" is the inscription seen on a silver match-safe representing a muscular closed fist and forearm.

Queen Victoria at the age of seventy-one is a very plain old lady, and she was by no means good-looking some thirty years ago, while she was still in the prime of life. She suffered a great deal from attacks of erysipelas, which reddened and coarsened her skin. She lost her teeth very early in life, owing to the use of a camphorated dentifrice to which she took a great fancy and which proved most pernicious. But from her accession at the age of eighteen till she was twenty-five or twenty-six, the Queen was a very pretty young woman, fresh and fair, with soft blue eyes, a small, rose mouth, and the loveliest arms and shoulders imaginable. Her lack of height was always a great drawback, and was the cause of her delighting in giving grand fancy costume balls, at which she was wont to appear in a court toilet of the eighteenth century, the high-heeled shoes which must perform a very becoming addition to her stature.

Mrs. Edward Bellamy has two pretty little children, and when not occupied with their writes autographs for friends who pester and post album leaves to the author of "Looking Backward."

The fish net is being shared into many clever forms for wall decorations. One of the alveoles of the Century Club, Philadelphia, has a cream-white wall, across which is stretched a netting that has been ridged. The effect is pretty.

Beware of all forms of massage or hand manipulation which rub the reverse way of the down or hair which covers the body. Says Joseph Wallace, Rheumatic curative pains may be rubbed upwards from the extremities, and produce collapse of the action of the heart and death, yet nothing may be wrong internally sufficient to cause death. Injurious effects are often induced through ignorance of the curative influence of the occult powers inherent in our nature, the knowledge of which, so far as they are known, should be represented in our colleges by a professor's chair, than where there would not be a higher in this world so far as the vital interests of humanity are concerned.

WORLDLINGS.

Senator Plumb is said to be fonder of champagne than any other man in Congress. It is his panacea for every ailment, mental or physical, and he is frequently seen in the Senate restaurant with a quart bottle before him.

Hammond's wife is expert with the needle and is famous as a cook. She is also remarkable for her simple piety and for her charities.

A recent visitor to Sarah Bernhardt's studio says that the cage formerly occupied by the tragedienne's pet tiger is now the house of 120 birds of all sorts and kinds.

The famous Eugene is still a demented and most graceful woman. The outline of her shoulders and the pulse of her head are still beautiful. Her eyebrows are dark, but her hair is snowy white above them.

Senator Farrell, of Illinois, is said to be one of the frankest men in Washington. He has fewer secrets than any other successful politician in the country.

A. C. Swift, of the Alcyon Boat Club, is known as one of the most active promoters of aquatic sports about this city. He finds time to handle the oar, although he is one of the busiest of business men. He is also an officer of the club.

W. C. Doan, Vice-President of the Atlanta Boat Club, is thought a good deal of by the members because of his devotion to the best interests of the Club. He is a fine handler of the oar and formerly rowed on the Club's winning crew.

Billy Cody, the "irresistible" of the Nonpareil Hoving Club, can enjoy himself in other ways than rowing. Strangely as it may sound to those who know his liking for the water. He is a great one to give yarns in the club-house when the members are assembled in anything but solemn silence.

C. F. Watson is a crack handler of the tennis racket. His friends about the Oranges say that he can handle any kind of a "racket" with great skill, which only impediment the beneficiary denies stoutly.

A Very Snug One.
 (From N. Y.)

Miss Serris-O'Connell: I'm sure Mr. Disbrow is having a fit!

Bar Brother: Yes, it's that one-piece Jersey which looks like a suit. He'll be out of it shortly.

On the Seashore.
 (From Harper's Bazar.)

"Look out!" cried the pebble to the clam shell; "there's a cold wave coming."

THE LITTLE TOTS NEED EVERY DOLLAR THAN CAN BE RAISED.

THEIR SUFFERINGS THIS HOT WEATHER IS SOMETHING TERRIBLE.

THE SUBSCRIPTIONS.

THEIR SUFFERINGS THIS HOT WEATHER IS SOMETHING TERRIBLE.

THE WAYS OF WOMAN FAIR.

Sick Infants Helped by Generous "Evening World" Readers.

The Little Tots Need Every Dollar Than Can Be Raised.

Their Sufferings This Hot Weather Is Something Terrible.

THE SUBSCRIPTIONS.

Previously acknowledged $4,074.34
 Mrs. M. J. Tyeen and Mrs. George Beckett, of Staten Island; Mr. Descher, of Brooklyn; Mr. M. L. Bradley, of Meriden, Conn.; Mr. Charles Baird, Philadelphia; Thomas Parks, of Belleview, Fla.
 Nor must Mr. Frank L. Taylor, the chief clerk of the Earlington, be forgotten.
 Among the cottagers who have taken an active interest in contributing to the success of the Entertainment Fund must be mentioned Mrs. de Barrios, Ithaca Cottage; L. P. Westcott, Mrs. F. B. Porter and others.
 At the Tuller Cottage Mr. N. D. Jewell used all his influence among his guests, and no less recognition is due to A. R. Getman, of the Kendallwood; Mrs. Tunnell, of Tunnell Cottage; and J. T. Davenport, of the Davenport House; Mr. Carey, of Carey Cottage; Mrs. Drier and family, of Stansfield Villa; D. M. Finke and party, A. T. Compton, J. Agostini at the Spring House.
 Among the letters received by Mr. Wood the following extract is from that of the Rev. Robert Granger, of St. John's Church, Richfield Springs:
 "The efforts of THE EVENING WORLD to procure care and sympathy for sick babies, like all other efforts of a similar nature, projected by THE WORLD, are worthy of every earnest individual's attention and support, because they embrace the fundamentals of Christianity or common humanity, the sole inspiration or charm of which consists in 'going about doing good.'
 I shall do what I can for your entertainment as far as my personal influence may go, and kindly accept the inclosed mite towards the increase of the fund.
 Mr. Edward J. Spencer, Manager at the Spring House and Summer Theatre, was unremitting in his efforts to please both the artists and audience, ably assisted by John F. Macdonald.
 The orchestra, under the direction of D. H. Stubblebine, was placed at the disposal of the Fund Committee by Messrs. Earle and Proctor, and performed various excellent selections.
 The programme comprised Sydney Grundy's comedietta of "Man Proposes," in which Marguerite St. John, as Bell Huntington, captured her auditors here as elsewhere by her musical voice, charming toilets and her refined and natural comedy.
 In her riding habit, by Wolmerhausen, she looks the picture of the high-bred English beauty that novelists describe, and both eye and ear are delighted.
 Mr. Walter Granville, an English actor who played Capt. Huntington for the first time, is of the school that Maurice Barrymore and E. H. Sothern have made so popular in this country.
 His manner was at once recognized by the audience, and he gave a most manly and delightful impersonation of the character.
 Miss Flora Clithrow, the well-known English leading lady of Wilson Barrett's and Mrs. Langtry's companies, who is well known throughout English histrionic circles, brought tears to the eyes of the audience by her exquisite and pathetic recital of "Papa's Letter" and "Our Folks," and showed her versatility in a little comedy part in "Man Proposes."
 Tessie Oliver Feely, the sweet mezzo-soprano of Daniel's "Little Puck" company, who has appeared at all the representations given by Miss St. John for the sick babies, was heard to great advantage in "Robin Adair" and "Tosti's" "Good-bye." She is most attractive and sympathetic, and rarely escapes without a double encore, a proof of popularity that needs no comment.
 Mrs. Emily Rayner recited "My Husband and I" and "Birthday Gifts" with complete success, and it was amazing to notice the audience as various ages were referred to in the recitation. One would look at the other, as the age mentioned might apply to the individual concerned.
 Alf C. Feeley, the young stage manager of W. H. Powers's "Ivy Leaf," is also fast becoming a favorite in working for the sick babies. He is a very agreeable and his character recitations, "Sheridan's Ride" (in Dutch) and "The Vagabond," are illustrated with dramatic power and keen appreciation of artistic effect, as well as with much natural feeling.
 At the conclusion of the programme Mr. George M. Wood thanked the audience in a few well-chosen words for their attendance, and explained the good work the charity had done.
 Then the curtain fell on another successful entertainment to raise again for the Sharon Springs and Saratoga, which will probably terminate one of the most brilliant campaigns in charity's cause ever recorded.
 The London Toilet Bazar furnished, as before, the circulars and programmes free of charge, and the California Vintage Company, of Park place, sent some of their cabinet special champagne and Santa Rosa claret as a present to the artists.
 Praise and appreciation of THE EVENING WORLD's good work were heard on all sides as a charity that has neither creed, nationality nor politics—but commands universal sympathy.

THEIR SUFFERINGS THIS HOT WEATHER IS SOMETHING TERRIBLE.

THE SUBSCRIPTIONS.

THEIR SUFFERINGS THIS HOT WEATHER IS SOMETHING TERRIBLE.

THE SUBSCRIPTIONS.

THEIR SUFFERINGS THIS HOT WEATHER IS SOMETHING TERRIBLE.

THE SUBSCRIPTIONS.

THEIR SUFFERINGS THIS HOT WEATHER IS SOMETHING TERRIBLE.

THE SUBSCRIPTIONS.

THEIR SUFFERINGS THIS HOT WEATHER IS SOMETHING TERRIBLE.

THE SUBSCRIPTIONS.

THEIR SUFFERINGS THIS HOT WEATHER IS SOMETHING TERRIBLE.

THE SUBSCRIPTIONS.

THEIR SUFFERINGS THIS HOT WEATHER IS SOMETHING TERRIBLE.

THE SUBSCRIPTIONS.

THEIR SUFFERINGS THIS HOT WEATHER IS SOMETHING TERRIBLE.

THE SUBSCRIPTIONS.

THEIR SUFFERINGS THIS HOT WEATHER IS SOMETHING TERRIBLE.

THE SUBSCRIPTIONS.

THEIR SUFFERINGS THIS HOT WEATHER IS SOMETHING TERRIBLE.

THE SUBSCRIPTIONS.

THEIR SUFFERINGS THIS HOT WEATHER IS SOMETHING TERRIBLE.

THE SUBSCRIPTIONS.

THEIR SUFFERINGS THIS HOT WEATHER IS SOMETHING TERRIBLE.

THE SUBSCRIPTIONS.

THEIR SUFFERINGS THIS HOT WEATHER IS SOMETHING TERRIBLE.

THE SUBSCRIPTIONS.

THE WAYS OF WOMAN FAIR.

Sick Infants Helped by Generous "Evening World" Readers.

The Little Tots Need Every Dollar Than Can Be Raised.

Their Sufferings This Hot Weather Is Something Terrible.

THE SUBSCRIPTIONS.

Previously acknowledged $4,074.34
 Mrs. M. J. Tyeen and Mrs. George Beckett, of Staten Island; Mr. Descher, of Brooklyn; Mr. M. L. Bradley, of Meriden, Conn.; Mr. Charles Baird, Philadelphia; Thomas Parks, of Belleview, Fla.
 Nor must Mr. Frank L. Taylor, the chief clerk of the Earlington, be forgotten.
 Among the cottagers who have taken an active interest in contributing to the success of the Entertainment Fund must be mentioned Mrs. de Barrios, Ithaca Cottage; L. P. Westcott, Mrs. F. B. Porter and others.
 At the Tuller Cottage Mr. N. D. Jewell used all his influence among his guests, and no less recognition is due to A. R. Getman, of the Kendallwood; Mrs. Tunnell, of Tunnell Cottage; and J. T. Davenport, of the Davenport House; Mr. Carey, of Carey Cottage; Mrs. Drier and family, of Stansfield Villa; D. M. Finke and party, A. T. Compton, J. Agostini at the Spring House.
 Among the letters received by Mr. Wood the following extract is from that of the Rev. Robert Granger, of St. John's Church, Richfield Springs:
 "The efforts of THE EVENING WORLD to procure care and sympathy for sick babies, like all other efforts of a similar nature, projected by THE WORLD, are worthy of every earnest individual's attention and support, because they embrace the fundamentals of Christianity or common humanity, the sole inspiration or charm of which consists in 'going about doing good.'
 I shall do what I can for your entertainment as far as my personal influence may go, and kindly accept the inclosed mite towards the increase of the fund.
 Mr. Edward J. Spencer, Manager at the Spring House and Summer Theatre, was unremitting in his efforts to please both the artists and audience, ably assisted by John F. Macdonald.
 The orchestra, under the direction of D. H. Stubblebine, was placed at the disposal of the Fund Committee by Messrs. Earle and Proctor, and performed various excellent selections.
 The programme comprised Sydney Grundy's comedietta of "Man Proposes," in which Marguerite St. John, as Bell Huntington, captured her auditors here as elsewhere by her musical voice, charming toilets and her refined and natural comedy.
 In her riding habit, by Wolmerhausen, she looks the picture of the high-bred English beauty that novelists describe, and both eye and ear are delighted.
 Mr. Walter Granville, an English actor who played Capt. Huntington for the first time, is of the school that Maurice Barrymore and E. H. Sothern have made so popular in this country.
 His manner was at once recognized by the audience, and he gave a most manly and delightful impersonation of the character.
 Miss Flora Clithrow, the well-known English leading lady of Wilson Barrett's and Mrs. Langtry's companies, who is well known throughout English histrionic circles, brought tears to the eyes of the audience by her exquisite and pathetic recital of "Papa's Letter" and "Our Folks," and showed her versatility in a little comedy part in "Man Proposes."
 Tessie Oliver Feely, the sweet mezzo-soprano of Daniel's "Little Puck" company, who has appeared at all the representations given by Miss St. John for the sick babies, was heard to great advantage in "Robin Adair" and "Tosti's" "Good-bye." She is most attractive and sympathetic, and rarely escapes without a double encore, a proof of popularity that needs no comment.
 Mrs. Emily Rayner recited "My Husband and I" and "Birthday Gifts" with complete success, and it was amazing to notice the audience as various ages were referred to in the recitation. One would look at the other, as the age mentioned might apply to the individual concerned.
 Alf C. Feeley, the young stage manager of W. H. Powers's "Ivy Leaf," is also fast becoming a favorite in working for the sick babies. He is a very agreeable and his character recitations, "Sheridan's Ride" (in Dutch) and "The Vagabond," are illustrated with dramatic power and keen appreciation of artistic effect, as well as with much natural feeling.
 At the conclusion of the programme Mr. George M. Wood thanked the audience in a few well-chosen words for their attendance, and explained the good work the charity had done.
 Then the curtain fell on another successful entertainment to raise again for the Sharon Springs and Saratoga, which will probably terminate one of the most brilliant campaigns in charity's cause ever recorded.
 The London Toilet Bazar furnished, as before, the circulars and programmes free of charge, and the California Vintage Company, of Park place, sent some of their cabinet special champagne and Santa Rosa claret as a present to the artists.
 Praise and appreciation of THE EVENING WORLD's good work were heard on all sides as a charity that has neither creed, nationality nor politics—but commands universal sympathy.

THEIR SUFFERINGS THIS HOT WEATHER IS SOMETHING TERRIBLE.

THE SUBSCRIPTIONS.

THEIR SUFFERINGS THIS HOT WEATHER IS SOMETHING TERRIBLE.

THE SUBSCRIPTIONS.

THEIR SUFFERINGS THIS HOT WEATHER IS SOMETHING TERRIBLE.

THE SUBSCRIPTIONS.

THEIR SUFFERINGS THIS HOT WEATHER IS SOMETHING TERRIBLE.

THE SUBSCRIPTIONS.

THEIR SUFFERINGS THIS HOT WEATHER IS SOMETHING TERRIBLE.

THE SUBSCRIPTIONS.

THEIR SUFFERINGS THIS HOT WEATHER IS SOMETHING TERRIBLE.

THE SUBSCRIPTIONS.

THEIR SUFFERINGS THIS HOT WEATHER IS SOMETHING TERRIBLE.

THE SUBSCRIPTIONS.

THEIR SUFFERINGS THIS HOT WEATHER IS SOMETHING TERRIBLE.

THE SUBSCRIPTIONS.

THEIR SUFFERINGS THIS HOT WEATHER IS SOMETHING TERRIBLE.

THE SUBSCRIPTIONS.

THEIR SUFFERINGS THIS HOT WEATHER IS SOMETHING TERRIBLE.

THE SUBSCRIPTIONS.

THEIR SUFFERINGS THIS HOT WEATHER IS SOMETHING TERRIBLE.

THE SUBSCRIPTIONS.

THEIR SUFFERINGS THIS HOT WEATHER IS SOMETHING TERRIBLE.

THE SUBSCRIPTIONS.

THEIR SUFFERINGS THIS HOT WEATHER IS SOMETHING TERRIBLE.

THE SUBSCRIPTIONS.

THE WAYS OF WOMAN FAIR.

Sick Infants Helped by Generous "Evening World" Readers.

The Little Tots Need Every Dollar Than Can Be Raised.

Their Sufferings This Hot Weather Is Something Terrible.

THE SUBSCRIPTIONS.

Previously acknowledged $4,074.34
 Mrs. M. J. Tyeen and Mrs. George Beckett, of Staten Island; Mr. Descher, of Brooklyn; Mr. M. L. Bradley, of Meriden, Conn.; Mr. Charles Baird, Philadelphia; Thomas Parks, of Belleview, Fla.
 Nor must Mr. Frank L. Taylor, the chief clerk of the Earlington, be forgotten.
 Among the cottagers who have taken an active interest in contributing to the success of the Entertainment Fund must be mentioned Mrs. de Barrios, Ithaca Cottage; L. P. Westcott, Mrs. F. B. Porter and others.
 At the Tuller Cottage Mr. N. D. Jewell used all his influence among his guests, and no less recognition is due to A. R. Getman, of the Kendallwood; Mrs. Tunnell, of Tunnell Cottage; and J. T. Davenport, of the Davenport House; Mr. Carey, of Carey Cottage; Mrs. Drier and family, of Stansfield Villa; D. M. Finke and party, A. T. Compton, J. Agostini at the Spring House.
 Among the letters received by Mr. Wood the following extract is from that of the Rev. Robert Granger, of St. John's Church, Richfield Springs:
 "The efforts of THE EVENING WORLD to procure care and sympathy for sick babies, like all other efforts of a similar nature, projected by THE WORLD, are worthy of every earnest individual's attention and support, because they embrace the fundamentals of Christianity or common humanity, the sole inspiration or charm of which consists in 'going about doing good.'
 I shall do what I can for your entertainment as far as my personal influence may go, and kindly accept the inclosed mite towards the increase of the fund.
 Mr. Edward J. Spencer, Manager at the Spring House and Summer Theatre, was unremitting in his efforts to please both the artists and audience, ably assisted by John F. Macdonald.
 The orchestra, under the direction of D. H. Stubblebine, was placed at the disposal of the Fund Committee by Messrs. Earle and Proctor, and performed various excellent selections.
 The programme comprised Sydney Grundy's comedietta of "Man Proposes," in which Marguerite St. John, as Bell Huntington, captured her auditors here as elsewhere by her musical voice, charming toilets and her refined and natural comedy.
 In her riding habit, by Wolmerhausen, she looks the picture of the high-bred English beauty that novelists describe, and both eye and ear are delighted.
 Mr. Walter Granville, an English actor who played Capt. Huntington for the first time, is of the school that Maurice Barrymore and E. H. Sothern have made so popular in this country.
 His manner was at once recognized by the audience, and he gave a most manly and delightful impersonation of the character.
 Miss Flora Clithrow, the well-known English leading lady of Wilson Barrett's and Mrs. Langtry's companies, who is well known throughout English histrionic circles, brought tears to the eyes of the audience by her exquisite and pathetic recital of "Papa's Letter" and "Our Folks," and showed her versatility in a little comedy part in "Man Proposes."
 Tessie Oliver Feely, the sweet mezzo-soprano of Daniel's "Little Puck" company, who has appeared at all the representations given by Miss St. John for the sick babies, was heard to great advantage in "Robin Adair" and "Tosti's" "Good-bye." She is most attractive and sympathetic, and rarely escapes without a double encore, a proof of popularity that needs no comment.
 Mrs. Emily Rayner recited "My Husband and I" and "Birthday Gifts" with complete success, and it was amazing to notice the audience as various ages were referred to in the recitation. One would look at the other, as the age mentioned might apply to the individual concerned.
 Alf C. Feeley, the young stage manager of W. H. Powers's "Ivy Leaf," is also fast becoming a favorite in working for the sick babies. He is a very agreeable and his character recitations, "Sheridan's Ride" (in Dutch) and "The Vagabond," are illustrated with dramatic power and keen appreciation of artistic effect, as well as with much natural feeling.
 At the conclusion of the programme Mr. George M. Wood thanked the audience in a few well-chosen words for their attendance, and explained the good work the charity had done.
 Then the curtain fell on another successful entertainment to raise again for the Sharon Springs and Saratoga, which will probably terminate one of the most brilliant campaigns in charity's cause ever recorded.
 The London Toilet Bazar furnished, as before, the circulars and programmes free of charge, and the California Vintage Company, of Park place, sent some of their cabinet special champagne and Santa Rosa claret as a present to the artists.
 Praise and appreciation of THE EVENING WORLD's good work were heard on all sides as a charity that has neither creed, nationality nor politics—but commands universal sympathy.